DR. PHILLIPS LITTLE LEAGUE ALL-STAR SELECTION MANUAL (SPRING 2026)

DPLL MISSION STATEMENT

DPLL provides a safe, family friendly environment for kids to play baseball and softball. Our managers and coaches take pride in teaching values including teamwork, sportsmanship, integrity, accountability, and responsibility. All while they are enjoying a memorable experience and making life-long friends.

DPLL ALL-STAR MISSION STATEMENT

DPLL strives to field the highest caliber and most competitive team in each division to represent our league and provide the best chance for success in post-season tournaments.

Dr. Phillips Little League (DPLL) will follow Little League International's established tournament rules and guidelines for All-Star rosters as well as the following process. If there is anything this manual does not address, then the official Little League Tournament Rules and Guidelines will govern accordingly.

3. Manager/Assistant Coach Selection for ALL divisions

A. Managers

- i. DPLL's Board will review all applications and vote on all eligible manager candidates (via ElectionRunner) throughout each division
- ii. Each coaching candidate will be invited (via Zoom virtual call with DPLL's Board of Directors) to present their respective case as to why they feel they're the best candidate to represent DPLL in an All-Star capacity, share their coaching philosophies, etc. (Calls will be limited to 10-minute time intervals). The call is scheduled for Sunday, April 19th from noon to 5:30 PM. The link to the reserve a time slot for that call will be provided to the prospective manager once the application has been completed and submitted to the league president.
- iii. Starting Monday, April 20th at 9 AM, the board will vote for each manager candidate via secret, online election utilizing ElectionRunner. The election will close on Wednesday, April 22nd at 5 PM. Only the league president, vice president, and treasurer will have access to the votes.
- iv. The candidate with the highest number of votes for that declared team will be awarded as All-Star Manager. Ties are broken by the league president. Managers for each All-Star team will be notified no later than Sunday, April 26th by the DPLL President.
- v. All Star Managers will be announced on May 15th via league email blast and posted on our Social Media accounts.

B. Assistant Coaches

- i. The manager who is awarded an All-Star team will select his assistant coaches (max of 2). The selected assistant coach(es) must adhere to the criteria above (Section 2.B).

4. All-Star Player Declaration

A. Any player wishing to declare themselves as an All-Star candidate must complete the on-line All-Star declaration on our website (www.dpll.org). The online portal will be available beginning April 1st (9AM) and will close on April 17th (5PM). Simply login to your account and select the "Register Now" button in the upper right-hand corner.

B. The All-Star declaration will include:

- i. Selection of declared All-Star teams (player can declare for two All-Star teams)
- ii. Answer questions relating to the commitment of All-Stars
- iii. Selection of uniform sizing and jersey numbers
- iv. Upload necessary residency documentation
- v. Upload a copy of player's birth certificate

C. The declaration does not guarantee an All-Star roster spot

D. Eligible criteria for players are addressed in the Official Little League Rulebook under "Tournament Rules and Guidelines"

DR. PHILLIPS LITTLE LEAGUE ALL-STAR SELECTION MANUAL (SPRING 2026)

5. Player Selection for Juniors, Intermediate, 9-11, 8-10 and 8-9 All-Stars
- A. The All-Star teams in this grouping will see the majority of their rosters selected by the managers and coaches throughout each division, as they'll each be casting a vote for their top-9 All-Star candidates
 - B. Voting will be done at the specified Player Selection Meetings for these All-Star teams
 - C. Discussions among the managers and coaches in the Player Selection Meetings will remain discreet and private. At the conclusion of those discussions, each manager and coach will receive a paper ballot and pen
 - D. From the players indicated on the ballot, each team manager and two coaches will select the top 9 players they feel most deserve to make an All-Star team
 - E. The completed ballots will be handed back to the Player Agent and temporarily placed in a sealed envelope
 - F. The league president and Player Agent will then tally the votes together, in a private location
 - G. The players receiving the top 9 votes from the managers and coaches will make the All-Star roster. That 9-player roster will immediately be presented to the All-Star manager.
 - H. Note: The league president and Player Agent WILL NOT share the counts with anyone except the manager of the respective All-Star Team. The All-Star manager will also NOT share the ballot tallies
 - I. The All-Star rosters will not, under any circumstance, be officially announced until May 15th, via a DPLL league email blast and our league Social Media accounts.
 - J. The All-Star manager, along with the league president, will select the remainder of All-Star team with an appropriate roster size (according to Section 1 above)
 - K. Seniors
 - i. The Seniors All-Stars ballot, organized by the league president, will only include those players who have openly declared for the Seniors All-Stars and appear for the Seniors All-Stars Tryouts.
 - ii. The Seniors All-Star manager, two assistant coaches, Juniors/Seniors player agent, Majors player agent, and an additional evaluator will cast a ballot at the Players' Selection Meeting
 - iii. The Players Selection Meeting will take place after the tryouts and no later than May 7th.
 - L. Juniors, and Intermediate All-Stars
 - i. The Juniors and Intermediate All-Stars ballot, organized by the league president, will only include those players who have openly declared for the Juniors All-Stars and Intermediate All-Stars
 - ii. A manager and two assistant coaches from each of the regular season Juniors teams will cast a ballot at the Players' Selection Meeting
 - iii. The Players Selection Meeting will take place via Google Form and will begin April 24th and conclude April 27th.
 - iv. If either manager or coaches are unable to attend, they may proxy to the Juniors Player Agent to cast their ballot.
 - M. 9-11 All-Stars
 - i. The 9-11 All-Stars ballot, organized by the league president, will only include those players who have openly declared for the 9-11 All-Stars team
 - ii. A manager and two assistant coaches from each of the regular season Majors teams and the managers of the AAA teams will cast a ballot at the Players' Selection Meeting

DR. PHILLIPS LITTLE LEAGUE ALL-STAR SELECTION MANUAL (SPRING 2026)

- iii. The Players Selection Meeting will take place via Google Form and will begin April 24th and conclude April 27th.
 - iv. If either manager or coaches is unable to attend, they may proxy to the Majors or AAA Player Agent to cast their ballot
- N. 8-10 All-Stars
- i. The 8-10 All-Stars ballot, organized by the league president, will only include those players who have openly declared for the 8-10 All-Stars team
 - ii. A manager and two assistant coaches from each of the seven regular season AAA teams will cast a ballot at the Players' Selection Meeting
 - iii. The Players Selection Meeting will take place via Google Form and will begin April 24th and conclude April 27th.
 - iv. If either manager or coach is unable to attend, they may proxy to the AAA Player Agent to cast their ballot
- O. 8-9 All-Stars
- i. The TOC ballot, organized by the league president, will only include those players who have openly declared for the TOC team
 - ii. A manager from each of the seven regular season AAA teams, the managers of the six AA teams, AAA player agent, and the AA player will cast a ballot at the Players' Selection Meeting
 - iii. The Players Selection Meeting will take place via Google Form and will begin April 24th and conclude April 27th.
 - iv. If either manager or coaches is unable to attend, they may proxy to the AA & AAA Player Agents to cast their ballot
6. Player Selection for Little League All-Stars
- A. For the Little League All-Stars only, each of the players in the Majors division across all five teams will cast a vote for their top-9 All-Star candidates. Players having a voice in regards to which of their peers are selected to the Little League All-Star team is a time-honored tradition at Dr. Phillips Little League
 - B. In addition to the players' vote, a manager and two assistant coaches from each of the regular season teams also get to cast a ballot
 - C. Voting for Little League All-Stars will be done at the specified Player Selection Meetings
 - D. During that scheduled time, the Player Agent will provide the manager, two assistant coaches, and each of the rostered players across all Majors teams with an All-Star ballot and a pen.
 - E. Everyone will have 5-10 minutes to complete their ballot and will be instructed not to show, or discuss their ballot with any other manager, assistant coach or player.
 - F. Once each person has completed their ballot by selecting their top 9 declared All-Star candidates, they will fold their ballot and return it to the Player Agent in attendance
 - G. The completed ballots will temporarily be placed in a sealed envelope or ballot box.
 - H. After every Majors team has voted, the league president and Player Agent will then tally the votes, together, in a private location. The 9 players that garner the most votes automatically qualify for the Little League All-Star team
 - I. In the event of a tie for the 9th and final spot, the top 8 players automatically qualify for the All-Star team

DR. PHILLIPS LITTLE LEAGUE ALL-STAR SELECTION MANUAL (SPRING 2026)

- J. That 9-player roster will be presented to the All-Star manager
- K. If a player voted onto the team chooses not to play for the Little League All-Star team for any reason, the player that received the next highest number of votes, but did not qualify for the top 9, is added automatically to the team. If more than one player voted in top 10 opts out, then the above process is repeated until the top ten are achieved
- L. Note: The league president and Player Agent WILL NOT share the counts with anyone except the manager of the respective All-Star Team. The All-Star manager will also NOT share the ballot tallies
- M. The All-Star rosters will not, under any circumstance, be officially announced until May 15th via a DPLL league email blast and our league Social Media accounts
- N. The All-Star manager, along with the league president, will select the remainder of All-Star team with an appropriate roster size (according to Section 1 above)
- O. Little League All-Stars Ballot
 - i. The Little League All-Stars ballot, organized by the league president, will only include those players who have openly declared for the Little League All-Stars team
 - ii. A manager and two assistant coaches from each of the five regular season Majors teams will cast a ballot at the Players Selection Meeting
 - iii. The Players Selection Meeting will take place as follows on Saturday, April 25th:
 - 1. Votes will be cast before or after games on Saturday
 - iv. Due to the high number of players, managers and coaches casting ballots, proxies will not be allowed due to a missed voting window

7. Notification of Player Selections/All-Star practice and games schedules

A. Notification of Player Selections

- iv. Per the Little League International guidelines, all player announcements will be made on May 15th and shared via email to our league families, as well as posted on our Social Media accounts.
